History of the Franchise

Last season, 1986-87, the Flames enjoyed their most successful league season in the history of the franchise with 46 wins, 95 points, for third overall in the National Hockey League.

Someone once said, "There is a lot more comes out of the South than just cotton", and for southern Albertans and Canadians alike, truer words were never spoken. On May 21, 1980, the Atlanta Flames became the Calgary Flames; they would no longer play in The Omni (capacity 15,141); they would play in the Stampede Corral (capacity 7,242). They would no longer take to the ice displaying a fiery "A" on their jerseys, but rather thrill the fans with an explosive-looking "C".

Calgary's and the Flames' first ever NHL game in the Corral was against Quebec Nordiques, Oct. 9, 1980, a 5-5 tie. The last game was a 6-5 playoff win over Edmonton, April 18, 1983. In three seasons in the Corral the Flames played a total of 146 games (league, playoff and exhibition), including that thrilling 3-2 win over the Soviet National Team, Jan. 2, 1983. The Flames lost only 28 regular season and 4 playoff games in the Corral.

The Flames are in their eighth season of NHL play in Calgary and fifth in the Olympic Saddledome. The Flames and their fans are playing and watching NHL hockey from the best entertainment facility in North America. The Olympic Saddledome, adjacent to the Corral, now seats 16,833 for hockey. This state-of-the-art facility opened Saturday, Oct. 15, 1983 when Edmonton edged the Flames, 4-3.

The history of the Flames' franchise unfolded when a group of Georgia businessmen, headed by Tom Cousins, based on solid marketing studies, the existence of a NBA basketball club, and a beautiful new building, applied for and were officially granted an NHL franchise June 6, 1972. The first game at The Omni matched the Flames against the Buffalo Sabres, and after 60 minutes, the Flames had earned their first NHL point: Atlanta 1, Buffalo 1. Ironically, the first game in Calgary also ended in a tie.

Not unlike the means by which the Flaming "C" came to represent the Calgary franchise, the name "Flames" was arrived at also by a contest in Atlanta that attracted some 10,000 entries, with judges from all phases of the media responsible for choosing the most representative nickname. Historically, General Sherman captured the city of Atlanta during the Civil War and burned the city down. The flames that engulfed the entire city were extinguished, and the rebirth of the Georgia capital began.

On May 21, 1980 Nelson Skalbania announced that he and a group of Calgary businessmen had purchased the Atlanta franchise and would move the team to Calgary. Sixteen months later Skalbania sold his interest in the franchise, and ownership of the southern Alberta franchise consists strictly of six Calgary business people. (See pages 4 & 5).

President and General Manager

Cliff Fletcher

There are few men in hockey who are as respected as Calgary Flames' President and General Manager Cliff Fletcher. His draft choices, trades, free agent and European signings the past several seasons confirm his determination and constant pursuit to make the Flames a championship team and bring the Stanley Cup to Calgary.

Fletcher, who is not afraid to take chances to improve his club, has had to make several changes this season, behind the bench and on the ice. When Bob Johnson resigned as head coach in May, Cliff moved quickly. Terry Crisp was hired to succeed Johnson, and when assistant coach Bob Murdoch left for Chicago, he was replaced by Doug Risebrough. The loss of Jamie Macoun left a big hole on defence and Fletcher plugged it acquiring veteran Brad McCrimmon (Philadelphia) and Ric Nattress (St. Louis).

Cliff was one of the first GMs to scout and sign European players from Sweden (Kent Nilsson, Hakan Loob) and Finland (Pekka Rautakallio, Kari Eloranta), and after the '88 Olympics the Flames will welcome their first Czechoslovakian — speedster Jiri Hrdina.

A native of Montreal, Fletcher has been the only GM the Flames have had. He started in Atlanta in February 1972 and in the summer of 1980 helped move the franchise to Calgary.

Making trades and scouting and signing players are only some of the many responsibilities a President-General Manager of a NHL team confronts daily. Hockey has become a multi-million dollar business and a year-round operation.

Hockey is Fletcher's life. It began with the Montreal Junior Canadiens where he served as a scout for 10 years under the guidance of Sam Pollock. NHL expansion opened new avenues for Fletcher, and in 1967 he became Eastern Canada scout for the St. Louis Blues. Two seasons later he was promoted to assistant general manager.

Cliff has been involved in four Stanley Cup finals — as the head man with the Flames vs. Montreal in '86, and three consecutive years (1968, 1969, 1970) while he was in St. Louis. In 18 years with the Flames and Blues, his teams have missed the playoffs only twice, the last time 15 years ago in 1973. As the Flames GM Fletcher has a winning .522 percentage.

One of many highlights of Fletcher's career came when he was chosen GM for Team Canada in Canada Cup '81. He serves on and chairs many NHL committees.

Cliff and wife "Boots" reside in Mount Royal, Calgary.

Assistant General Manager

Al MacNeil

Al is in his 6th season as the Flames' Assistant GM and 9th with the club. He is widely recognized for his discerning analysis of hockey talent, and he is responsible for all professional pre-scouting and monitors the progress of all players under contract or drafted by the Flames. He also consults with the coaches on these players.

This is nothing new for this veteran hockey person. This is Al's 26th season in professional hockey and he has been active — and successful — in nearly every phase of the game, on and off the ice.

He played eight seasons in the NHL as a rugged defenseman with Toronto, Montreal, Chicago, Pittsburgh and the New York Rangers. In 1968 he turned to the coaching ranks with Houston Apollos, then a farm club of the Montreal Canadiens. He moved into the NHL coaching ranks in 1970 and piloted the Canadiens to a Stanley Cup title that season. He is one of a few NHL coaches to win a Stanley Cup in his first year.

In 1971-72 he was named GM-Coach of the Nova Scotia Voyageurs in the American League. In six seasons in the AHL, he led the Vees to four first place finishes and three Calder Cup titles. He was an assistant coach for Team Canada in both the 1976 and 1981 Canada Cup Tournaments.

Al joined the Flames in 1979 as head coach, a position he held for three seasons. He was behind the bench when the Flames arrived in Calgary in 1980. During the team's first season in Calgary, he led the club to the Stanley Cup semi-finals.

His four-year NHL coaching record consisted of 295 league games (134-108-53) and a .544 winning percentage.

On September 2, 1982, he officially left coaching to become Cliff Fletcher's first lieutenant.

A Maritimer, Al, his wife Norma and children Allison and Allister live in Calgary, but spend part of their summer in Big Pond, Nova Scotia.

Head Coach

Terry Crisp

Terry Crisp became the fifth coach in the Flames' 15-year history May 22, 1987 replacing Bob Johnson.

The sudden resignation of the highly successful Johnson surprised many, but the Flames feel that in 45-year-old Crisp they have a solid replacement.

And why not. While moving up the Calgary ladder, Crisp built an admirable record at Sault St. Marie in the Ontario Junior League, and then for the past two campaigns with the Flames' number one farm club in Moncton.

The colorful Crisp played 11 seasons in the NHL with Boston, St. Louis, New York Islanders and Philadelphia. He was a member of the Flyers' two Stanley Cup champions in 1973-74 and 1974-75.

Crisp's coaching career started with the Flyers where he served two seasons as an assistant to Fred Shero. Then he moved into the head coaching position at the Soo, leading the Greyhounds to 3 division and 3 OHL championships. Twice he was selected coach-of-the-year in 1982-83 and 1984-85. Following the '84-85 campaign he was lured to the pro ranks by Cliff Fletcher to coach in Moncton.

Now his dream of coaching in the NHL is a reality and while he admits he's following a tough act given Johnson's success, Crisp comments, "It's not my intention to fill Bob's shoes but to mold the team in my style of coaching."

Before accepting the Flames' 3-year contract Crisp was in the running for a number of other vacant NHL coaching positions. In Moncton Crisp was instrumental in the development of Brett Hull, Brian Bradley, Doug Dadswell, Kevan Guy, Gary Roberts and others. His combined two-year record in Moncton was 12 games above .500 with a team that constantly had players being called up to the Flames and Boston Bruins.

Terry and wife Sheila have three children, Tony (18), Jeffrey (16) and Caley (8). All are residing in Calgary except Tony who will continue his hockey career with Belleville in the OHL.

Assistant Coaches

Pierre Page

With Pierre Page returning for his eighth season in the Flames' organization it guarantees continuity on the coaching staff following the departure of Bob Johnson and Bob Murdoch.

Although Pierre was considered for several head coaching jobs in the NHL during the off-season he's back for his third-straight campaign as a Flames' assistant. He also was an assistant to Al MacNeil during the Flames' first two seasons in Calgary and then became General Manager-Coach of the Flames number one farm team — two years in Denver and one in Moncton.

Pierre was instrumental in grooming Joel Otto, Mike Vernon, Tim Hunter, Al MacInnis, Colin Patterson and Neil Sheehy for the NHL.

Pierre caught the attention of the Flames when he was head coach of the Dalhousie University Tigers in Halifax in the late 70's. He transformed the Tigers into the number two college team in Canada during the 1978-79 season, capturing the Maritime title for the first time in 60 years. While in Halifax, he assisted with the AHL team in that city. He worked with the Canadian Olympic team in 1980 and with Team Canada for Canada Cup '81.

Pierre, his wife Donna and daughter Lauren, are full-time Calgarians where Pierre participates in a number of charity golf events and with the Flames' slo-pitch team.

Doug Risebrough

One career ended and another commenced June 9, 1987 when Doug Risebrough announced his retirement from the Flames as a player to take on the challenge of coaching, accepting a job as one of Terry Crisp's assistant coaches.

Leadership always has been high on Risebrough's pedigree and that will be a major asset in his new assignment.

As a player Doug played 13 seasons in the NHL, many with nagging injuries, restricting him to only 22 games last season. His career totals are 740 games, 185 goals, 286 assists, and 471 points, and a reputation of being one of the most competitive players in the game. He paid the price to win.

Doug came to the Flames just prior to the start of the club's 1982 training camp after nine seasons with the Montreal Canadiens where he helped the Habs to four consecutive Stanley Cups between 1976 and 1979. He was Montreal's second first round pick and 7th overall in 1974.

Offensively, Doug's best season with the Flames was his first when he scored 21 goals and had 59 points.

His intensity on the ice will never be forgotten by Flame fans and he brings that same quality to the club in his new role.

Doug, his wife Marilyn and daughters Allison and Lindsay, spent the summer in Calgary. He was a member of the Flames' slo-pitch team.

Coaches

Paul Baxter

When Cliff Fletcher asked Paul Baxter to be a playing assistant coach with the Flames for the 1986-87 season the veteran defenceman had no idea that one year later he would be Coach of the Flames' number one farm team in Salt Lake City, in the International Hockey League, his first head coaching job.

Paul played four seasons with the Flames after being signed as a free agent in 1983. His eight-year NHL career also saw him play with Pittsburgh and Quebec. He also performed in the World Hockey Association for four seasons with Winnipeg, Cleveland and Quebec.

As a playing assistant for Bob Johnson last season, Paul helped run practices and when he wasn't in uniform, served as a spotter.

A solid "open ice hitter" (over 1,500 minutes in penalties, including a league high of 409 in 1981-82), Baxter, who played for four different pro clubs, holds the distinction of never been traded.

Paul, his wife Julie and their three children — Nicole, Marcus and Laura — made their home in Calgary ever since he joined the Flames, but now have a residence in Salt Lake City. Paul will be missed in Calgary where he was actively involved in charitable work.

Glenn Hall

A few years ago when the Flames decided they needed someone special to work with their goaltenders they selected one of the all-time greats in Hall-of-Famer Glenn Hall.

It was mid-way in the 1983-84 campaign that Hall joined the Flame family. He first helped Reggie Lemelin and then Mike Vernon. With the Flames having a number of young netminders in their system, Glenn's job will continue to be an important one.

Glenn works with the Flame goalies at training camp, during the season and at special times pointing out bad habits they may have acquired and in improving their position in the net. He says he rarely tampers with a netminder's style.

During his playing days Glenn was one of the NHL's true superstars performing with Detroit, Chicago and St. Louis earning the nickname "Mr. Goalie". When he started in the NHL it was at a time when teams carried just one goaltender and between 1955 and 1962 he established a record that will never be broken playing in 502 straight games. He won several Vezina Trophies, all-star team honors and established several regular season and playoff records. He starred when Chicago won its last Stanley Cup in 1961.

Glenn and his wife Paula make their home in Stony Plain, a suburb of Edmonton.

Trainer

Jim Murray

Jim (Bearcat) Murray is a vital part of Calgary's hockey history. He is in his 8th season as the Flames' trainer.

'Bear's' ability to react instantly to on-ice injuries is well documented. Many times he has reached an injured Flame player before play has stopped.

A native of nearby Okotoks, 'Bearcat' is versed in Calgary's hockey past. He was a player prior to becoming trainer for Scotty Munro's junior Centennials in the Western Hockey League and then for the Cowboys in the WHA.

'Bearcat', his wife Shirley and sons Allan and Danny, make their home in Calgary.

Equipt. Mgr.

Bobby Stewart

Bobby Stewart, the Flames' equipment manager, is in his 15th season with the club. Only President-GM Cliff Fletcher has been with the Flames longer.

Bobby, who has been around hockey teams since he was growing up as a 15-year-old in Montreal, is responsible for the sticks, skates, pads, helmets, sweaters, pants and all the equipment needs of the players and coaching staff. It's a never-ending job, but one he excels and revels in.

He joined the Flames in Atlanta in '73 and moved with the club to Calgary in July 1980.

Bobby, his wife Sherri and son Josh, make their home in Calgary.

Scurfield Humanitarian Award

Ralph T. Scurfield
Jan. 7, 1928 - Feb. 18, 1985

The Ralph T. Scurfield Humanitarian Award is presented annually to the Calgary Flames' player who best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance, determination and leadership on the ice combined with dedication to community service.

Presentation of the award is made by a member of the family at the final regular season home game.

Lanny McDonald, the first winner of the Scurfield Humanitarian Award, was presented with this prestigious award by Ralph D. Scurfield.

ANYONE CAN WIN THE MOLSON CUP. ALL IT TAKES IS GUTS, DETERMINATION AND TALENT.

Joe Mullen

Joe Mullen was the sixth Flames' player, seventh winner and third right winger to win the prestigious Molson Cup. He finished the '86-87 season with 100 points.

Mullen won $3,500. overall during the season, including $1,000. for finishing first. He donated all his winnings to the Calgary Zoo's Zoo-Shoot program.

The Molson Cup will again be awarded to the Flame player who receives the greatest number of points from the Three Star selections.

(Bear - a - zan)

Avoiding the injury bug is among Perry Berezan's top priority entering his third NHL season. The first two years he was plagued by a series of injuries, including a serious groin ailment that kept him out of the Flame line-up from Nov. 11 to March 17 last season. Surgery was necessary to alleviate the problem.

Originally signed as a centre, Perry now plays all three forward positions. Last season he scored 3 of his 5 goals away from home.

The biggest goal of his career was an unassisted game winner in the historic 7th game of the Smythe Division final against Edmonton in 1986. However, he rarely receives credit for the tally because it was Oiler defenceman Steve Smith who banked the puck into the net off the skate of goalie Grant Fuhr. Regardless, the official game report credits Perry with the biggest goal in Flame history — and it came in his hometown.

Berezan scored a goal in his first NHL game March 20, 1985, against Toronto, and continued the streak notching points in his first four NHL matches.

Prior to joining the Flames, Perry played two seasons in the Alberta Junior League with St. Albert Saints. Then two years at the University of North Dakota where he averaged 1.3 points per game.

Perry, who is single, spent the summer at Grand Forks, ND and UND, where he resumed his studies in management. He returned to Calgary in mid-August to play in the outfield for the Flames' slo-pitch team. He also competed in area golf tournaments.

When Steve Bozek became an NHLer he was classified a left winger, but as a Flame he's performed at all three forward positions with a variety of linemates.

Last season Steve played in more games than in any of his previous four years with the Flames as he equalled the 71 games he recorded in his rookie campaign with Los Angeles Kings.

A sound two-way player, Steve made his 17 goals count in '86-87 scoring four game winners to finish second in that category behind Joe Mullen, and two shorthanded tallies tied him for the club lead in that area. His most productive night was Nov. 1 when he scored a pair of goals pacing the Flames to a 4-1 decision over Washington.

Now in his seventh NHL campaign and fifth with the Flames, Steve was a rookie scoring sensation. Coming right out of college he scored 33 goals for L.A. playing with Marcel Dionne and Dave Taylor. However, as a Flame the speedster has developed into a defensive-type forward. In his final year at U. of Northern Michigan, he was the CCHA scoring champion (35g, 55a, 90p), and he won the Gordie Howe Scholarship as the player best combining hockey skills with athletic achievements.

Steve is single but plans to marry long-time sweetheart Pat Potvin next summer. He divided his time during the off-season between Calgary and Castlegar, B.C., and was a pitcher with the Flame slo-pitch squad.

When the Flames acquired Mike Bullard from the Pittsburgh Penguins early last season, it was to give the club added scoring punch. Once he learned the Flames' system, Bullard emerged as a solid scorer. Scoring 20 of his goals in the 2nd half of the season, Mike was one of the two 30-goal men on the team.

Dividing time between his natural position of centre and right wing, Mike registered 6 two-goal games after making his Flame debut on Nov. 13. He was second on the team in power-play goals with 10 and also had three game winners. Injuries sidelined him for several games.

Bullard made his biggest impact in the play-offs. He was the Flames leading scorer in their 6-game series against Winnipeg Jets, scoring twice in Game Two and the overtime goal in Game Three at Winnipeg.

Pittsburgh's number one draft pick in 1980, Mike still ranks as the second leading goalgetter in Penguin history, including a 51-goal campaign in 1983-84. Two years ago he played for Canada at the World Championships in Moscow.

Mike will wear jersey No. 22 this year. He was 25 last season.

Mike and his wife Lise spent most of the summer in Pittsburgh, but Mike returned to Calgary to play with the Flames' slo-pitch team.

Acquired: Free Agent, signed August 6, 1986

It's a good bet Doug Dadswell will never forget his first NHL game, but when he lists his most pleasant experiences he'll readily recall his second NHL game.

His first game as a Flame was the infamous "Snowstorm Game" at the Meadowlands in New Jersey, Jan. 22 last season. The game started two hours late and only 320 people viewed the contest as the Devils rallied to win, 7-5.

His second NHL game was more like the storybook event a youngster dreams about. It was on April 2 in Edmonton in front of a standing room only crowd. Dadswell was brilliant, sparking the shorthanded Flames to a 4-4 tie. He faced 42 shots in stopping the eventual Stanley Cup champs.

But Dadswell spent most of his rookie pro season with Moncton in the American League. He was the Golden Hawks' number one goalkeeper, recording 23 of Moncton's 48 wins.

The Flames thought so highly of Dadswell, they released 9-year veteran Reggie Lemelin.

Dadswell signed as a free agent with the Flames during the summer of '86 after being a standout netminder at Cornell for two years, where he posted a 37-17-4 record. In 1985-86, his final year, he was named to the all-America team.

Doug, who is single, makes his off-season home in Scarborough, a Toronto suburb.

Toward the latter stages of last season when the Flames were looking for a "stay at home" type of defenceman they found him with their American Hockey League farm team in Moncton.

Kevan Guy impressed.

He isn't spectacular, but his style was something that the Flames' goaltenders were glad to have. Kevan defended well in his own end, as reflected in his plus-minus record +8.

Kevan got his first NHL point — an assist — in his third game after being called up from Moncton. He set-up Lanny McDonald Feb. 3 against Vancouver. Ironically, Guy and McDonald both played their junior hockey in Medicine Hat. However, he is still looking for his first NHL goal.

Any NHL player who has not played in 25 regular season games is classified as a rookie. Kevan played 24 games last season.

Kevan, who is single, spent a large portion of the summer in Calgary. He is a native of Edmonton. He played in a number of area celebrity golf tournaments as well as playing in the outfield for the Flames' slo-pitch team.

In his first season of pro hockey Brett Hull accomplished a feat that his legendary father, Bobby, a Hall of Famer, achieved five times in the NHL and four more times in the WHA — score 50 goals.

In becoming only the second rookie in AHL history to score 50 goals, Hull did it in 67 games and culminated the assault on 50 by scoring twice in the final 11 minutes of the last game of the season in Moncton. He scored 42 goals in Moncton's final 39 games, including 19 in a 14-game goal streak and set a new AHL record. The Hockey News selected him as the Minor League Player-of-the-Year.

Brett had three separate stints with the Flames last season. His only NHL regular-season goal was a game winner. But he made his biggest impact in the Stanley Cup playoffs when he was recalled by the Flames for the third game in Winnipeg and assisted on Mike Bullard's overtime winner. The next night he scored his first NHL playoff goal, and scored a go-ahead goal in Game 5 that the Flames won 4-3.

A late bloomer, Brett caught the Flames attention in 1983-84 when he scored 105 goals for the Tier II (Junior) Penticton team. He continued his outstanding scoring the following two years at the U. of Minnesota-Duluth, and in 1986 played for the USA team at the World Championships where he led the team in goals. He then turned pro. He also played for the American team at the Calgary Cup tournament (1986) and was invited to the Team USA tryout camp for the '87 Canada Cup.

Brett, who is single, spent the summer in Duluth, where he continued his studies at U of M-D.

Tim Hunter played in more games last season, 73, than he had in any of his previous four seasons with the Flames, most were at right wing, but he also saw some action on defence.

After going a lengthy stretch without scoring a goal, Tim scored five times during the second half of the year when he also connected for 15 of his 21 points. He scored four of his six goals away from home.

A very aggressive player, Tim led the Flames in penalties again last season, establishing a club record 357 minutes. He also set a club standard by being penalized in 14 straight games.

This is the Calgary native's eighth season in the Flame organization and he has the distinction of being the first Calgary born and developed player performing for them. He scored his first NHL goal at the Corral against the Oilers' Grant Fuhr Dec. 4, 1982. His most productive game was 2 goals and an assist vs. Minnesota March 31, 1984.

Tim, his wife Kim and daughter Kelsey, spent the summer in Calgary. Tim played in a number of area golf tournaments and was an outfielder with the Flames' slo-pitch team.

For the first time in his four-year NHL career Hakan Loob failed to score 30 goals last season, but his strong performance for gold medal winning Sweden at the World Championships was proof that the swift-skating right winger may be on the verge of returning to his high-scoring ways.

Shoulder problems hindered his performance with the Flames in 1986-87. After World Championships, where he was Sweden's top scorer, he underwent surgery to repair the damage. The operation prevented him from competing for Sweden in the Canada Cup Tournament.

Loob scored 12 of his 18 goals last season at the Saddledome, registering 15 during the first half of the season, when he played in all but one game.

Hakan started the 1987-88 season needing only nine games to reach 300. He has averaged 29 goals and 60 points since joining the Flames for the 1983-84 season.

Before coming to the Flames, Hakan established a Swedish League record when he scored 42 goals. In his first three seasons with the Flames he led the club in goals.

Hakan, his wife Marie and their children Hendrik and Nicholas, spent the summer in Sweden. He's an accomplished tennis player.

Until last season Al MacInnis was known primarily as the Flame defenceman with one of the hardest shots in the NHL, but he gained much more recognition than that in his best season ever. For the first time he was picked to the NHL's all-star team, nabbing second team honors, and he was 6th in voting for the Norris Trophy as top defenceman. In setting a club record for points in one season by a defenceman, 76, Al led Flame defenders in scoring and was 3rd among NHL blueliners.

His outstanding shot made him one of only four defencemen to score 20 goals last season, 10 in each half and 11 away from home, as he led the Flames in shots on goal with 262.

Between Dec. 8-28 MacInnis tied Kent Nilsson's club record for assists in consecutive games — nine — and he came within one game of the club record for points in consecutive matches when he went on a 10-game binge between Dec. 6-28, including a five-point night against Detroit Dec. 16.

As a junior with Kitchener he tied Bobby Orr's record scoring 38 goals in 1982-83 and was named the league's top defenceman. He was also an OHL first all-star team member twice and played in the NHL all-star game in 1985 at the Saddledome.

Al, who is single, spent most of the summer in Calgary playing plenty of golf, but trying out for Team Canada '87 prevented him from lining up with the Flames' slo-pitch team.

After completing a regular season where he established the Flames top plus record with a +33 rating, Jamie Macoun would just as soon forget what occurred immediately after that.

In the third game of the Flames playoff series against Winnipeg his season ended when he suffered a serious abdominal injury and while it didn't require surgery, forced him to remain in a Winnipeg hospital for a week. Then during the off-season he was involved in an automobile accident that left him with nerve damage in his arm that will keep him out of the line-up for most of, maybe all, the 1987-88 season.

Last season marked the second time in three years that Jamie was the Flames' top plus player. He teamed with Al MacInnis to form one of the top defence units in the NHL. He scored six of his seven goals in the Saddledome where he excites fans with his quick skating and rousing hits.

Jamie came to the Flames directly from Ohio State University, where he returned during the past off-season to resume his studies. In his rookie season he was named to the league's all-rookie team. He was also a member of the silver medal Canadian team at the 1985 World Championships.

Jamie, who is single, divided time during the off-season in Calgary, Columbus, Ohio and his hometown of Newmarket, Ontario.

Height: 5-11

Acquired: Trade with Philadelphia, August 26, 1987 for a 1st and 3rd round NHL draft choice.

When the Flames obtained Byron (Brad) McCrimmon from Philadelphia Aug. 26, 1987 for a first and third round draft choice, they obtained plenty. Plenty, Sask. is where the 28-year-old Flame resides.

Now in his ninth season in the NHL (Boston three years, Philadelphia five years), McCrimmon is recognized as one of the premier defensive rearguards in the league. He was drafted by Boston in the first round (15th) of the 1979 Entry Draft, traded by Boston to Flyers for Pete Peeters, June 9, 1982. He is a durable performer, averaging 74 games a season.

Last season he again was among the leaders in plus/minus with +47, Jamie Macoun led Calgary with +33. Noted for his defensive style he makes his goals — 52 career, 10 last season — pay dividends: he had four game-winners, three powerplay and two shorthanded goals. And in the playoffs scored three goals, one a game winner.

Offensively his best season was 1985-86. He collected 56 points (13g, 43a), career highs in all three categories; played in all 80 league games, finished second in plus/minus with +83, second to teammate Mark Howe (+85). In 1984-85 voted Flyers top defenceman.

Ten of his 52 career goals were scored against Smythe Division teams — L.A. and Vancouver, three each, Edmonton and Winnipeg, two each and none vs. Flames.

Starred on Memorial Cup Champion Brandon Wheat Kings 1978-79 (24g, 74a, 98 pts); was named WHL's top defenceman in '78, and to that league's first All-Star team in 1978 and 1979.

The highlight of Lanny McDonald's 14th NHL season came in the final game of the regular season when he celebrated his 1,000th game, becoming only the 6th player in NHL history to reach that milestone.

This season Lanny is hopeful he can attain his 500th NHL goal and 1,000th point. He started the season with 479 goals and 965 points. He's also hoping that the injury bug won't hit him. A knee injury kept him out of 19 games last year.

McDonald's 40 goals in Stanley Cup playoff competition, including three in overtime, are more than any other Flame.

His best season was in 1982-83 when he scored 66 goals for the Flames, was named NHL second team all-star, and winner of the Bill Masterton Trophy. He scored the first Flame goal in the Saddledome Oct. 15, 1983.

Last season Lanny became the first player to receive the Ralph T. Scurfield Humanitarian Award. Lanny has been extremely active with Special Olympics and is honorary chairman of Calgary's Ronald McDonald House.

Lanny, his wife Ardell and their four children Andra, Leah, Barrett and Graham, split the summer between Calgary and Montana. A book on Lanny's outstanding career, titled "Lanny" was released in September.

The kid from New York conquered Calgary in his first full season with the Flames. Joe Mullen was the Flames' main man as he enjoyed his best goal-scoring season with 47, and his second best total points with 87.

Joe's outstanding season was culminated by his winning the Lady Byng Memorial Trophy by an overwhelming margin over Wayne Gretzky. Joe had the fewest penalty minutes (14) among the league's top 20 scorers.

He was a landslide winner of the Molson Cup. He led the league with 12 game winners, also a club record. He also had six first goals of the game and 15 powerplay tallies.

He reached the 40-goal plateau for the fifth straight year. Two of his goals came on three penalty shots.

He had only nine goals in the club's first 24 games but scored 26 in the second half of the season. Mullen led the team in two-goal games with 10. His 10-game point-streak between Dec. 11 and Jan. 3 fell one short of the club record. He collected points in 56 of the 79 games he played.

Joe recorded his 400th career point last season, after coming to Calgary from St. Louis late in the 1985-86 campaign. He was Central League rookie-of-the-year at Salt Lake City, where he became the first player to score 20 goals in the minors and NHL in the same season.

Mullen played for Team USA in Canada Cup '87.

Joe, and his wife Linda, have three sons — Ryan, Michael and Patrick. They spent the summer in Cape Cod, MS.

When the St. Louis Blues took the Flames to seven games before succumbing in the Campbell Conference final of 1986, one of the Blues' top defencemen was Ric Nattress. His performance didn't escape the Flames when they dealt for the veteran blueliner during the NHL's June draft meetings.

The Flames are Nattress' third NHL club as he goes into his sixth season. Offensively, Ric had his best season in 1986-87 with the Blues collecting 28 points on six goals and 22 assists. He needs 31 points this season to hit the 100 mark.

A veteran blueliner Nattress was originally a second round draft choice of Montreal Canadiens before being purchased by the Blues. With the retirement of Paul Baxter and Brian Engblom and the loss of Jamie Macoun, the Flames are looking for Nattress' experience to help steady the defence.

Ric, wife Jackie and children Justin and Christie, took up residence in Calgary just before training camp.

The "Joe Who?" the Flames secured with one of the draft selections they gained in the Kent Nilsson trade with Minnesota, checked into Calgary late in the 1986-87 season and from the start centre Joe Nieuwendyk made an impact.

Two days after leaving Cornell and signing a pro contract with the Flames, Nieuwendyk scored his first NHL goal in his first game on March 10. Before the regular season ended Nieuwendyk had scored five goals on 16 shots for an outstanding 31.3%. One of Joe's goals was the game winner March 28 when the Flames defeated Los Angeles 4-3 to clinch second place in the Smythe Division.

Joe played in all six playoff games against Winnipeg scoring twice and assisting on a third. Because he played in only nine games, he is still classified as a rookie.

Nieuwendyk had an outstanding three years at Cornell culminating it last year by being a candidate for the Hobey Baker Award; led the Eastern College Athletic Conference in scoring; and was named as Cornell's MVP, serving as one of the team's co-captains. He was also all-America in 1985-86 and ECAC rookie of the year, and second team all-star in 1984-85.

He played for Canada at the '86 World Junior Championships and last year suited up with the Canadian team in the Calgary Cup Tournament. Joe played minor hockey on a team with Flame Gary Roberts.

Joe, who is single, spent the summer at his home in Whitby, Ontario.

Injuries and tough luck around the net plagued Joel Otto's sophomore season, nevertheless he was a valuable centreman for the Flames.

A late-season knee injury, March 10, sidelined Joel for the balance of the regular schedule and the first four playoff games with the Jets.

Otto scored 12 of his 19 goals on the road with his most productive night Nov. 3 when he scored three times in a 4-2 win over Los Angeles. He was one of two Flames who registered a "hat trick" last season. He had a Plus 8. Joel and Jim Peplinski were the most penalized Flame forwards.

That he's a regular in the NHL goes against popular conception. Otto landed a spot with the Flames although he got his training at a Division II U.S. college, Bemidji State. He was a key performer for coach Bob Johnson's USA team in Canada Cup '87.

Joel, who is single, spent the summer at his home in Elk River, MN, where he worked on his golf game and practiced his impressions of Flames' radio play-by-play broadcaster for QR77, Peter Maher.

Recognized as one of the Flames' top checking forwards, Colin Patterson started gaining league recognition in that area during the 1986-87 campaign when he was among the leaders in the voting for the Frank Selke Trophy, which goes to the player judged to be the top defensive forward in the NHL.

A couple of concussions kept Patterson on the sidelines for part of last season. Prior to that he had recovered from an energy-sapping virus that sidelined him for the final three games of the 1986 Stanley Cup final against Montreal. He played in more games last season (68) than ever before.

Colin notched nine of his 13 goals during the second half of last season. He had three game-winning goals, but the biggest was his overtime tally at Toronto Jan. 26 when his goal resulted in a sensational 6-5 victory. The Flames trailed 5-0 after the first period. He has still to score his first NHL "hat trick."

Patterson is one of a number of Flame free agent signings who has paid dividends. He played three years at Clarkson College before turning pro and completed his business degree during the off-season.

Colin was married to Sherri Kerr Aug. 29, just prior to the start of training camp. He spent much of the summer in Calgary playing in golf tournaments and was second baseman for the Flames' slo-pitch team.

Height: 6-3
Weight: 209

Acquired: 1979 Entry Draft, 4th round, 75th overall

For the fourth time in his 7-year career as a Flame, co-captain Jim Peplinski participated in all 80 regular season games last season. He and Carey Wilson were the only two Flames to participate in every game.

Although Peplinski's first goal didn't come until the 21st game, when he scored twice in an 8-5 win over the Rangers, he ended the season with 18 goals, amassing a 7-game point streak late in the season, which included a 4-game goal streak.

Jim scored 12 of his goals on the road and tied for the team lead in shorthanded goals with two, in a season where he passed the 300-points and 500-games plateaus.

"Pepper", along with Paul Reinhart, are the only players still with the team since its first season in Calgary. Since joining the Flames in 1980, Jim has missed only 15 of 560 games.

Peplinski shares the team record for goals in a single game, notching four in his 100th career game Nov. 17, 1981 against Winnipeg. He is one of only four Flame players to record four in a single game.

Early this season Jim should surpass Eric Vail's franchise record of games played as a Flame. Vail played in 559 games, most of those when the team was in Atlanta. Jim is also third in all-time penalty minutes.

Jim and his wife Cathy were joined by a daughter, Erin during the past season and it was shortly after her birth that Pepper went on his scoring streak.

The Peplinskis spent most of the summer in Calgary where Jim is involved with many charitable organizations and is honorary chairman of Big Brothers.

The last surviving player from the Flames days in Atlanta enjoyed the luxury of missing only four games last season and it was a welcome relief to Paul Reinhart.

After being plagued by back problems in 1985-86 the 9-year Flame veteran enjoyed one of his finest campaigns. He finished fourth in scoring among league defencemen with 69 points and was the Flames third best point-getter. He scored 10 of his 15 goals on the road. He earned votes for all-star defencemen and the Lady Byng Trophy and an invitation to try out with Team Canada for the Canada Cup, which he had to refuse to give his back a rest.

Paul collected his first two regular season "hat tricks" in '86-87 — one on Nov. 24 for a 6-5 win against Edmonton when he scored three times in the first period, tying a club record. "Rhino" had a 10-game point streak between Jan. 16-Feb. 5, scoring 3 goals and 14 assists.

Paul is the Flames' all-time Stanley Cup playoff point collector (19-44-63) where twice he has had 3-goal games. He's the club's all-time and single season leading scorer among defencemen with 117 and 23 goals, respectively. He needs 59 points to reach the 500 plateau.

He played in Canada Cup '81 and for Team Canada at the World Championships in 1982 and 1983, where he was picked as Canada's outstanding defenceman.

Paul, and his wife Theresa, spent the summer in Calgary where Paul is involved in ownership of a restaurant. He played shortstop for the Flames' slo-pitch team.

Three times in his rookie pro season Gary Roberts was recalled from the minors to the Flames and he's hoping the last time will launch an uninterrupted NHL career with the Flames.

After being called up for the final time March 2 the left winger made an impression, especially after being reunited with his minor hockey centre, Joe Nieuwendyk.

He also made an impact in his first NHL game Nov. 11 when he scored the insurance goal in the Flames 5-3 verdict over Vancouver.

Between call-ups from Moncton, Roberts scored 20 goals in 38 games with the AHL squad and 14 points (5-9) as a Flame.

Gary culminated his junior career helping Guelph Platers capture the Memorial Cup in 1986 after being traded from the Ottawa 67s, a team he captained for two seasons. Gary was an outstanding lacrosse player playing on a Mann Cup championship team.

Gary, who is single, spent the off-season at his home in North York, Ont., a suburb of Toronto.

(She - he)

Neil Sheehy had his best season goal-wise in 1986-87, but it was his ability to effectively contain Wayne Gretzky in games that he played against Edmonton Oilers that gained him most of his notoriety.

A rugged defenceman who plays a sound defensive game, Sheehy unfortunately was plagued by injuries last season, missing 26 games. The most serious was a dislocated shoulder suffered in the sixth game of the season against the Oilers. He didn't return until the 26th game. Later, a charley horse set him out of a few more games.

Sheehy scored three of his four goals away from home and 115 of his 151 penalty minutes on the road.

This will be Neil's fifth season in the Flames' organization. He played four seasons of college hockey at Harvard where he was also on the school's boxing team. He has a B.A. degree in economics.

Neil, who is single, spent the summer at his home in International Falls, MN, where he was involved in a couple of hockey schools.

The knee injury that prevented Gary Suter from being with the Flames in their march to the Stanley Cup final in 1986 haunted him throughout his sophomore season in 1986-87.

The NHL's top rookie of 1985-86 missed 12 games when the knee acted up last season, and he played many nights when he was hampered by the injury. Nevertheless he was selected to play for Team USA in Canada Cup '87 and his performance could be the springboard to return him to top form in the NHL.

Suter's rookie campaign was an outstanding one. The Flames' ninth round draft pick of 1984 became the second highest scoring rookie defenceman in NHL history, including six assists April 4 against Edmonton. He recorded 10 points in the '86 playoffs before he was injured in game seven of the Flames' Smythe Division final at Edmonton.

He started the season needing 11 assists to record number 100.

Gary played two seasons at the U. of Wisconsin before turning pro. He was named co-winner of the Team USA MVP award at the World Championships in 1985 and it was then the Flames got their first indication that he might be a future NHLer.

Gary, who is single, spent the summer at home in Madison, WS. Gary's brother, Bob, played for the gold medal winning U.S.A. team at the 1980 Winter Olympics in Lake Placid.

For the seventh straight season John Tonelli hit the 20-goal plateau in 1986-87, his first full season as a Flame. Half of his goals came on the Flames' powerplay.

John had a pair of two-goal games last season, both resulting in Flame wins. On Dec. 30 at New Jersey he sparked a third period comeback by scoring twice late in the game for a 4-3 triumph with his winner coming with 23 seconds left in the game.

He has been an active performer in the Stanley Cup final six times, playing on four winners with the NY Islanders. Tonelli has played in more games (138) and collected more points (35-64-99) in playoff competition than any other Flame.

John was MVP of Canada Cup 1984 and later that year was voted The Hockey News "International Personality of the Year." During the 1984-85 season he was voted to the league's second all-star team.

A great clutch player J.T. assisted on Bob Nystrom's overtime goal in 1980 giving the Islanders their first Stanley Cup. He also scored an OT goal to eliminate Pittsburgh in a 1982 playoff series.

John, wife Karen and children Jennifer and Ryan, spent the summer at their Long Island home. John has an arena named after him in his hometown of Milton, Ontario.

Acquired: 1981 Entry Draft, 3rd round, 56th overall

Proving his playoff brilliance of 1986 was no fluke Mike Vernon became only the third goalkeeper in Flames history to win 30 games during his first full regular season in the NHL.

Mike collected 19 of his 30 wins in the first half of 1986-87, only two short of Dan Bouchard's club record for victories in a season. Rejean Lemelin is the only other Flame goalie to win 30 times. Mike combined with Lemelin to set a Calgary season record for shutouts — three. Vernon's was Nov. 9 when he blanked Montreal Canadiens, 3-0, with 22 saves.

Twice, Mike put together seven-game undefeated streaks.

One of two Calgary natives on the Flames' roster Mike was outstanding in the Flames drive to the Cup final in '86 compiling a superb 2.93 goals against average.

A product of Calgary Minor Hockey and the Junior Wranglers, Mike played for the Memorial Cup champion Portland Winterhawks in 1983 before turning pro. Twice he was the Most Valuable Player in the Western Hockey League.

Mike, who is single, spent the summer in Calgary playing in a large number of charity golf tournaments and he was an outfielder for the Flames' slo-pitch team.

WILSON

33

Centre
Born: Winnipeg, Manitoba
Date: May 19, 1962
Height: 6-2
Weight: 205
Shoots: Right
Last Amateur Club: Canadian Olympic Team, 1984
Acquired: Trade with Chicago, November 8, 1982 for Denis Cyr

Carey Wilson produced a balanced set of scoring statistics last season as he completed his third full year with the Flames. Carey, who played in all 80 games in 1986-87, scored 10 goals and 28 points in the first half and the same number in the second half.

That he played in every game was a testimony to Carey's excellent recovery from a ruptured spleen he suffered in the sixth game of the Flames' Smythe Division final of 1986.

Drafted by Chicago, he was obtained from the Hawks in exchange for Denis Cyr. Wilson joined the Flames after competing for Canada in the 1984 Olympics where he scored three goals in the tournament's first game against USA. Carey, in 1984-85, established new club records for a rookie with 72 points and 48 assists.

He began season four short six points for 200 and 25 goals for 100.

A superbly conditioned athlete, Carey attributes it to a disciplined training program and competing in triathlon events during the off-season with his twin brother, Geoff. The twins played Tier II junior hockey in Calgary.

Carey and his wife Joan spent much of the off-season in Winnipeg, where Carey's father Gerry, himself a former pro player, is a medical doctor. Carey plans to become a doctor and he has already completed three years of medical studies.

NHL's Look For 1987-88

The National Hockey League is in its 71st regular season with Conference and Division alignment and an unbalanced schedule that will focus attention upon some of the greatest rivalries in sport. The following is the same format as last season.

CLARENCE CAMPBELL CONFERENCE

Smythe Division

CALGARY FLAMES
Edmonton Oilers
Los Angeles Kings
Vancouver Canucks
Winnipeg Jets

Norris Division

Chicago Blackhawks
Detroit Red Wings
Minnesota North Stars
St. Louis Blues
Toronto Maple Leafs

PRINCE OF WALES CONFERENCE

Patrick Division

New Jersey Devils
New York Islanders
New York Rangers
Philadelphia Flyers
Pittsburgh Penguins
Washington Capitals

Adams Division

Boston Bruins
Buffalo Sabres
Hartford Whalers
Montreal Canadiens
Quebec Nordiques

UNBALANCED SCHEDULE

Each of the 21 teams will play an 80-game schedule, with those teams in the Smythe, Patrick and Adams Divisions having eight games (four home, four away) against each of their Divisional opponents, plus three games each against the remaining 16 teams in the League. In the case of the three games against the remaining clubs, teams will play two home, one away or vice-versa, alternating the extra home game each year.

The six clubs in the Patrick Division — New Jersey, New York Islanders, New York Rangers, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Washington — will play each other seven times with three games against each of the remaining 15 teams. The home ice differential will be alternated each season.

STANLEY CUP PLAYOFFS FORMAT

At the conclusion of the regular schedule, the top four finishers in each of the Divisions will qualify for the Stanley Cup playoffs.

The Divisional Semi-Final round features the first place club opposing the fourth place team and second versus third in a best-of-seven series. The winners of each series will advance to a best-of-seven Divisional Final series, with the team with the highest standing during the regular season receiving home-ice advantage.

The four divisional winners will meet in a best-of-seven Conference Championship. It will be the Smythe Division versus the Norris Division for the Campbell Conference championship, while the Patrick Division will oppose the Adams Division winner for the Prince of Wales Conference title. The Conference champions will meet in a best-of-seven final series for the Stanley Cup.

In the Conference championships, the home ice advantage will be gained by the team which secured more points during the regular season.

For Stanley Cup play, home ice advantage will go to the team which secured more points during the regular season than its opponent. The final series will be a 2-2-1-1-1 format.
